Historic Pensacola Village to host 2nd Annual Regional Conference
“Celebrating Our Civic, Community and Cultural Heritage”

PENSACOLA, FL – West Florida Historic Preservation, Inc. (WFHPI) announces an upcoming regional conference on April 24, 2010. The theme of this year’s conference will focus on civic education, community and our shared cultural heritage. Our mission for this event is to better equip educators to teach local history, civics and heritage by providing them continuing education opportunities, resources and materials. The conference is aimed toward regional educators, but is open to all who wish to attend. Dena Bush, Museum Educator, states, “Our first conference, celebrating Pensacola’s 450th anniversary, was a great success. For this year’s conference, I hope to provide a venue of discussion for all community heritage, local history and civic enthusiasts. This conference will enable teachers to collaborate with one another, share and equip, and better instruct their students.”

Conference cost is $20 per person and includes access to sessions and a luncheon. Registration is limited, so please visit the Historic Pensacola Village Web site, www.historicpensacolavillage.org, for further information and forms.

West Florida Historic Preservation, Inc., is a direct support organization of the University of West Florida, operating the T. T. Wentworth, Jr. Florida State Museum, Historic Pensacola Village, the Pensacola Historical Society, and Arcadia Mill Archaeological Site.
